Wanted to write and let everyone know that we are leaving for Tanzania tomorrow, June 24th.

I am still a little sore from the van accident. The doctor says I may need surgery on the shoulder; but, I can get that done in Nairobi, Kenya.

We are very excited about getting home and back to the work.

We have enjoyed our furlough. Have really enjoyed being able to report to the churches and spend time with old friends.

The last month was not the greatest what with the angioplasty and accident. We are so thankful for the love and protection of God. We feel like He has kept Ron alive for a reason. It is both humbling and puts a responsibility on us to make sure we do whatever it is He wants us to do.

Please pray for our travel. Pray that the harvest would be prepared for the reaping of souls when we get back home.

We will have the new church building to finish. Ron will be mentoring and teaching Bonaphas, who has surrendered to preach. We have a lot of teaching and training to continue. We want to be able to go further out in to the bush to reach others who have never heard the Gospel.

We look forward to what God has in store for us.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support.

In CHRIST
